MERCY

- A powerful melodic rock band founded by Lead Singer Mercy Lee releases its first track, more soon to come...an entire CD will follow this fall...

Singer Mercy Lee has been on the road in England and the USA for many many years.

As the singer of Intruder, a New York based band, he worked with bassist George Karak, who had composed the song "Runaway" by Bon Jovi. "Surprise Attack" is written by George in this period, and newly masterly rearranged and produced by Angi Schiliro.

Currently MERCY presents itself with the exceptional guitarist Angi Schiliro, internationally known, among other things, as an ex-member of Kingdom Come, the platinum band around legendary singer Lenny Wolf in the USA. ... find more about him on his own profile.
